Shenandoah Community Fellowship Church

197 Patmos Rd
Woodstock, VA 22664

A brief History

Shenandoah Community Fellowship was birthed in September of 2000 in the home of Ralph and Dee Berry under the Pastoral care of Ralph Berry and Banks Swanson as an independent member of the Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia.

Within three months of forming, the church grew out of the Berry's home and into the basement of SunTrust Bank in Edinburg. With the continual blessings from the Lord, not even a year went by before SCF moved again into the Woodstock Fire Hall.

In 2005 Ralph left the church to put more time into his career; teaching and preparing foster parents as well as providing counseling services. Pastor Banks was then hired on as the full-time pastor after five years of serving with the church and is now the Senior Pastor.

In 2006, the Lord provided SCF with the building that we worship in today. The Lord continues to bless in many ways.

In 2011, SCF hired Brandon Roberts as the Pastor for children and youth, and in 2012, Kelly Day was appointed as Pastor for family ministries.
